

Members Are...

- Professionally employed individuals or those actively seeking employment in the educational ministry of the church
- Volunteers who are involved or interested in Christian Education;
- Congregations that are eager to support their educational ministry leaders;
- Christian educators who are members of another denomination that desire networking and support;
- Retired Christian educators, but would like to share your experiences with others;
- Students who are interested in faith formation.

We are linked by our mission to support one another in each of our callings so
"...that they may be encouraged in heart and united in love..." (Col. 2:2)

The CENetwork of the ELCA got its start from the initiative and leadership of Evangelical Lutheran Church of America faith educators in 2003. The organization was recognized by the ELCA as an independent affiliated organization of the ELCA in 2005.

It's Easy to Join! Your support is crucial!

Join the Christian Education Network of the ELCA conveniently on-line at our website or download a membership form to complete and mail to the coordinator.

faithfulteaching.org

In Loving Memory Inspired by and dedicated to the service of Rachel Coen-Tuff and Dave Wasemann.

The Christian Education Network of the ELCA Presents initiatives are a way to reach out to support Christian Educators and congregations. In 2021, the Learning Strategies for Life of Faith Initiative are available for all (members and non-members). Check out the website! More resources will be available each month!

How to Create a Safety Plan

In 2018, the Christian Education Network of the ELCA presented "How to Create a Safety Plan for Your Church" in workshops around the country. In 2019, the guide as well as video webinars walking people through the process, were placed on the CENetwork website. This is an awesome resource that we are excited to share it with members of the CENetwork of the ELCA!

How to Create a Safety Plan for Your Church

A workshop designed to walk you through customizing a safety plan for your church

Enter the workshop and receive a generic safety template. Leave with a customized safety guide.

Through our process you will design a safety plan to equip your unique congregation and its volunteers

- Transporting youth & adults to church-sponsored events
- Screening volunteers who work with children
- Active shooter lock-down procedures
- A training method for your congregation
